

Black + White Beginners Weekend • Tutor: Rachel Thibbotumunuwe

Learn the whole process of photography in one weekend - using 35mm camera, processing your film, printing up contact sheets and making enlargements. This will equip you with the skills to use a darkroom without assistance.

Sat & Sun 11am - 5pm • £80/£55

Saturday

35mm SLR camera

- How the camera works
- Shutter / Shutter speeds and its associated effects
- Aperture and its effect on depth of field.
- Setting correct exposure using the light meter in the camera.
- Combining Aperture and Shutter speeds.
- Film ASA
- Loading Film
- Practical. Taking photographs, 36 exposure film.

Film processing

- Introduction to film processing equipment
- Practising loading films onto spirals.
- Introduction to processing room
- Load films
- Process films

Sunday

Darkroom session

- Introduction to darkroom / materials
- Darkroom etiquette and health and safety
- Making contact sheet of your negatives
- Making enlargements from negatives (10 x 8 inch)
- Various printing techniques.

It is regrettable that Street level cannot supply any cameras for use on the workshop.
All other materials will be supplied.

Please book your place by telephone.

Confirmation of your booking will be secured on receiving full payment for the course. A full refund is only available if cancellation is made a minimum of two in advance of the start date of the course.

Booking early is recommended to avoid disappointment.