Date	07/05/11
Venue / Postcode	Dunoon Burgh Hall, PA23 7DE
Participants	Young people aged 12-25yrs Adults aged 25 yrs+
Number of participants	2 x 2hr workshops for  7 Young people aged 12-25yrs 4 Adults aged 25 yrs+
Background	Picture This was an exhibition created by a group of young people in Glasgow who participated in a series of creative workshops with artists and youth workers. The artworks explored feelings and meanings and were inspired by the works of contemporary artists who use photography in their work. The workshops at Dunoon Burgh Hall supported participants to explore the 'Picture This' exhibition using information notes and discussion questions to help 'read' images and to trigger responses, ideas and opinions about the artworks. During the latter half of the workshop, the group worked together to create new original photographs in Dunoon Burgh Hall using a range of props including costumes, mirrors and backdrops.
Aims of project	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• To introduce Dunoon residents to Street Level Photoworks education programme</li> <li>• To create an education project in partnership with Dunoon Burgh Hall</li> <li>• To offer a free photography and exhibition interpretation workshop to a new audience in Dunoon in conjunction with the Street Level Photoworks 'Picture This' exhibition</li> <li>• To support Dunoon residents to learn more about using cameras and explore photography in new and exciting ways</li> </ul>
